

NAMES:	HBUM REF	PEDI- GREE	FGS	PICT	HE
Alwin Broadhead and Grant Broadhead (They ran about head in the West Fork of the Duchesne River and in the North Field). They marked their cattle by cutting off one ear. Later they cut off only part of ear.
Elmer Broadhead and Sons (son of Robert and Alice Clegg Broadhead) Lyman Broadhead (They had about 200 head) Dane Broadhead
Hyrum Christensen and Sons Garold Christensen Harold Christensen Lamar Christensen Russell Christensen
Heber Giles Crook
Jesse Richmond Nelson and Sons (1853) (They ran about 500 head) George Nelson Glen Nelson Jesse Richmond Nelson Jr (1882) Wallace (Gub) Nelson William Ray Nelson
Thomas Phillips had a modest herd then his son Fredrick Thomas Phillips Harry James Phillips developed a bigger herd References: 1. Jennie Crook Nelson (2 interviews May 1992) 2. Kent Jones 3. Warren Jones 4. Harold Christensen 5. Wayne Murdock					